

Guest Speakers

The professional staff is encouraged to utilize outside speakers and other community resources when such expertise is available and relevant to the educational program under discussion at the time. Such outside resources will be used only if the material is pertinent to the age level and maturity of the students.

Adopted by the Board: May 1995

Revised by the Board: December, 2005